To Whom It May Concern:

Sara Michalski and I worked together on the Nebraska Theatre Caravan's Midwest National Tour of A Christmas Carol in November/December 2009. Sara was an actress and I was her Artistic Coordinator (immediate supervisor).

Sara was professional in every sense of the word during her time with us. She was always prompt, thorough, and gave 100%; both for the rehearsal period as well as the production timeframe. Everyone in the company got along well with her as well.

Being on tour requires an extraordinary amount of patience, compatibility and flexibility. Sara always expressed these characteristics throughout the tour. In addition, she has a very strong, beautiful singing voice!

I recommend Sara in any endeavor she pursues. I assure you, I have experienced nothing but talent, cooperation and a strong will to always do better from this lovely, young lady.

Respectfully,

Lara Marsh
