To Whom It May Concern:

This letter is on behalf of Weathervane Playhouse's late Managing Artistic Director Matthew Trombetta, who passed away June 2010, to recommend Sara Michalski as a performer. Sara worked for Weathervane during their 2008 and 2009 summer seasons. During that time, Matthew was managing artistic director for the nine shows Sara performed in, in five of which he had the pleasure of directing her.

Matthew Trombetta cast Sara Michalski as an acting intern in 2008 and again as a company member in 2009. Since then, he was always thinking of shows that would bring her back to Weathervane. As the assistant and close personal friend to Matthew, I can say he truly enjoyed every moment of working with Sara and came to trust her performance greatly. He appreciated her consistent willingness to work hard and her natural fearlessness in making strong character choices.

On behalf of Matthew Trombetta, I highly recommend Sara Michalski as a strong singer, actor, and dancer who is a delight to work with.

Sincerely,

Erika Twining

Managing Director
Weathervane Playhouse
